

Who is at RISK of Trafficking?

- History of abuse (all forms).
- Missing or runaway.
- Single parent household.
- Poverty.
- Housing instability.
- Involvement in welfare.
- Sudden change in behavior.
- Substance use or abuse.
- Lacking ID, passport, etc.
- Arrest/criminal justice involvement.

These concerns, especially in combination, indicate an increased risk of being trafficked or having experienced commercial trafficking. If you suspect trafficking of a client, or are unsure, contact The Avery Center for further information and referral assessment: services@theaverycenter.org

